4 New Titles by Cypriot Authors

Building Bridges in a Polarized World and Divided Cyprus

By Kate Clerides (Heterotopia, 2023)
RRP: £15.00

■ Having devoted the last 30 years to trying to build bridges, resolve conflict and foster reconciliation in Cyprus, Kate Clerides took advantage of the COVID-19 lockdowns to share her experiences and ideas about how to move from polarization to convergence. While focusing on Cyprus and the reasons why, in her view, the island continues to be divided, she examines how other nations have resolved long-standing problems and what we can learn from them.

How to achieve reconciliation and reunification in Cyprus.

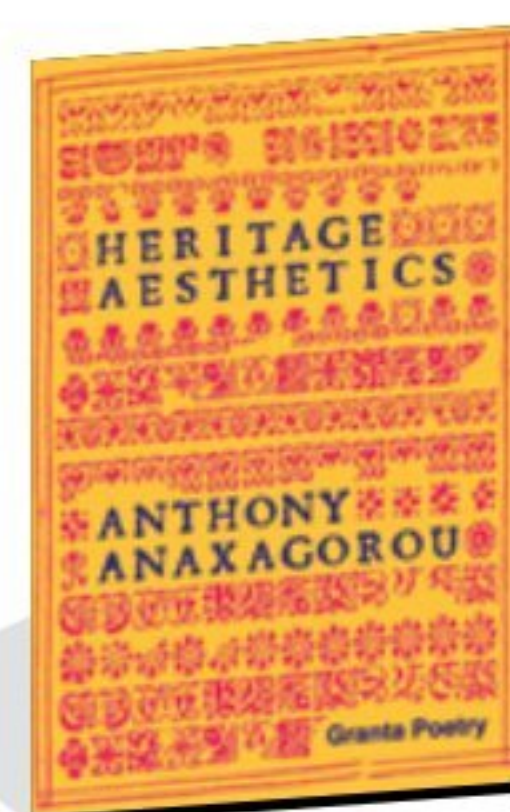

The MARVEL of Happiness: Principles, Stories and Lessons for Living Fully

By Philippos Aristotelous (Clear Sight Books, 2023)
RRP: £19.99
(£19.99 FROM AMAZON.CO.UK)

■ A second edition of a book is always a sign of success. The fact that this one features a quote from GOLD on the cover and a foreword by our Senior Executive Editor makes us especially pleased that Philippos Aristotelous' entertaining exploration of 'the good life' has struck a chord with readers around the world. Using stories, practical lessons and the six MARVEL principles, he empowers us to construct a holistic sense of wellbeing.

A new edition of the guide to living a fuller and better life.

Heritage Aesthetics

By Anthony Anaxagorou (Granta Poetry, 2022)
RRP: £10.99
(£8.73 FROM AMAZON.CO.UK)

■ Anaxagorou, a British-born Cypriot writer, publisher and educator, has been especially successful with his poetry collections: this latest one was the winner of the 2023 Royal Society of Literature Ondaatje Prize, an annual £10,000 award for a work of fiction, non-fiction or poetry that evokes the "spirit of a place", written by a citizen of a Commonwealth country. The poems look at Cyprus' history as seen through the author's eyes and experience.

An award-winning collection by a British-born Cypriot poet.

Nistisima: The secret to delicious vegan cooking from the Mediterranean and beyond

By Georgina Hayden (Bloomsbury Publishing, 2022)
RRP: £26.00 (£21.00 FROM AMAZON.CO.UK)

■ Both sets of the authors' grandparents emigrated from Cyprus in the 1950s and were involved in the restaurant business. She was born above her father's Cypriot tavern in London and many of its dishes featured in her second book, Taverna. This third one is devoted to 120 recipes for Nistisima – food eaten during Lent and other times of fasting, when meat and dairy items are replaced by vegetables, pulses and grains. Outside Cyprus, they are trendy vegan/vegetarian!

Traditional vegan/vegetarian dishes from Cyprus to the world.
